ABOUT SALLY

My spiritual pathway began in the 1970's, I bought a book about Cartomancy (playing cards), how to interpret playing cards for fortune telling.

I became intrigued and started practicing on friends and family.

I became more passionate reading books attending seminars workshops to enable me to develop my natural gifts.

My professional career as a Clairvoyant Palm Tarot Reader began in 1986.

Through out my years as a professional reader I have continued to develop myself which will be a life time commitment.

I started teaching Tarot and Spiritual Development in 1995, I have and continue to teach individuals, small groups, retreats also online. So wherever you are in the world we can connect via Internet or face to face.

Around 7 years ago I became interested in hypnosis and trained as a hypnotherapist, my aim in this is to help my clients via hypnosis to be more tuned into innate spiritual gifts to enhance spiritual development.

Since the 1970's I have been aware and used creative visualisation, which is now known as the Law of Attraction for enhancing all areas of my life. Most of the time I have a positive mindset, I am human and I have my moments where I can become negative. This has now lead me on to studying a masters degree in Positive Psychology. I am fascinated by the brain and how the brain can be rewired by maintaining a positive mindset. Also this has lead me to the practice of mindfulness.

TAROT FOR RELATIONSHIPS

INTRODUCTION

This e-book is exclusively for analysing & understanding relationships, you do not need any experience of tarot cards. If you do not have a set of Tarot Cards, I recommend a deck from The Rider Waite which is available through the Amazon website.

No matter your age or whether you are single male or female, you can meet someone and wonder if this will be the one?

As you are curious, often you will book a reading with a psychic to find out if this is a potential relationship with a long distance future?

So here is your answer, my e-book will enable you to interpret the cards for yourself or your friends.

Some of the questions that come to my mind when you meet someone new:

- Am I wasting my time?
- Is the relationship going to last?
- What do they think about me?
- Is this my soul mate?

The answers are within you. You yourself will have your own questions and it is worth while writing your questions down on paper to help you focus and clarify information you are looking for in your reading.

I hope you enjoy this book and hopefully have some fun and realise how useful Tarot Cards can be.

My humble request is that you acknowledge me as the writer of this material if you are reproducing this information.

Here we go...

I think there are loads of myths around tarot cards: examples:

1. No one but yourself should touch your tarot cards.

My belief is they are my cards. I allow my clients to handle my cards. Once the reading is over, I will reshuffle the cards to put my energy back into the cards.

2. You should never buy your own tarot deck.

I totally disagree. You need to discover and experiment with different decks and you will change the decks at different times in your life. The most important thing is to select a tarot deck that talks to you. I remember once a friend bought me a new tarot deck very decorative but they just didn't talk to me. At the moment my favorite deck is the Hermetic Tarot. I also like Llewellyn's Witches Tarot deck. For teaching, I like the Rider-Waite tarot. The thing about Tarot cards is that they are very intimate, personal and your choice.

3. Storing in a wooden box wrapped in black silk

This to a small extent is acceptable as this about storing your cards and keeping your deck safe so that you do not lose them. Black silk also protects your cards from negative energy. Also a bag can be used. The problem of storing the cards in the original boxes is that they disintegrate with use.

So the choice is yours to go out and buy the cards which talk to you and decide what kind of storage you would like to use for your cards.

I am not covering any history of tarot cards as this information is freely available. This E-book is purely tarot interpretations for relationships.

CARD INTERPRETATION

The card interpretations are based on a traditional tarot deck. For example using the Rider-Waite. This deck contains:

Major Arcana = Major mysteries

Minor Arcana = Minor mysteries

The Minor Arcana which are broken down into Suits:

- Wands
- Cups
- Swords
- Pentacles

Court cards which are a part of the Minor Arcana:

- King
- Queen
- Knight
- Page

The interpretation of the cards comes from my thirty years of experience of working as clairvoyant tarot reader and teacher.

Here's how we get started with interpreting cards.

Tarot cards are broken down into:

- Major Arcana 22 cards in roman numerals running from The Fool 0 – The world XXI
- Minor Arcana broken down in 4 suits of 14 cards per suit.

Arcana means mystery, Major Arcana according to Jung represents 'The Archetype, that as humans, we have in common, we are born, we live and we die, but each of our Journeys in life are individual. The Fool represents the number 0. It can appear anywhere in between the numbers. The fool is our reincarnation, yet we can't remember our past lives, only in this life time we as individuals have our own unique journey and lessons. This also ties up with the Akashic record of all human experience.

REPRESENTATION OF SUIT

Each of the suits represents 4 energies. If you are completely deficient of energy then as humans we will die as we all need air, fire, water and earth to live.

SUIT	ENERGY	CORELATION
WANDS	FIRE	ENERGY DRIVE AMBITION
CUPS	WATER	EMOTIONS LOVE RELATIONSHIPS
SWORDS	AIR	CONFLICT MENTAL WELL BEING COMMUNICATION
PENTACLES	EARTH	POSSESSIONS WORK FINANCES

So during a reading, it is important to know the balance of cards.

For example, during a reading when no cups turn up, it will indicate that the person isn't in touch with their emotions, or putting up barriers because they don't want to get hurt. When someone is in a relationship for the money only, the pentacles card will come up. Now if there is passion, you'll have loads of wands, no wands, no passion, just platonic friendship. Swords will always show conflict. Too many swords often will indicate a tempest relationship. No swords means the relationship is going well. So the minor cards are very useful as they give you the picture of what is happening in the here and now.

COURT CARDS: These are very difficult to interpret as they can be related to people or an aspect of a person's personality, so you have to decide what it is.

- Pages always represent a boy or girl under 18 or inner child aspect
- Knights represent young men between the ages of 18-30.
- Queens represent a woman over 18.
- Kings represent men over 30.

Each court card has an assigned birth sign which is listed further down in this e-book. According to me, one of the best books on Court cards description is Emily Peaches book 'tarot Prediction'. I highly recommended reading it as it is very well written. Also the court cards can be either male or female I have kept this as an aspect of personality rather than a person. Then a separate list of hair & eye colour and features for each suit of cards.

You can add to your notes what career corresponds with the appropriate court card and what it represents. The Pictorial Key to the Tarot Arthur Edward Waite's book often will describe careers that correspond to the court cards. For example, King of Swords related to a Soldier.

TIME SCALES

There are several different ways that you can interpret time scales. What I have mentioned below are my ideas on time scales.

You can use numerology: basically any number can represent a time scale.

NUMEROLOGY TABLE

NUMBER	TIME SCALE	ALTERNATIVES
ACE	ONE WEEK	ONE MONTH
TWO	TWO WEEKS	TWO MONTHS
THREE	THREE WEEKS	THREE MONTHS
FOUR	FOUR WEEKS	FOUR MONTHS
FIVE	FIVE WEEKS	FIVE MONTHS
SIX	SIX WEEKS	SIX MONTHS
SEVEN	SEVEN WEEKS	SEVEN MONTHS
EIGHT	EIGHT WEEKS	EIGHT MONTHS
NINE	NINE WEEKS	NINE MONTHS
TEN	TEN WEEKS	TEN MONTHS

The Major Arcana can also be used.

Example: The Hierophant is in the spread so you can relate the card to a time scale. In the month of May, you'll find that your girlfriend is cold towards you emotionally and it's a month where your relationship is strained and you'll not be Seeing Eye to Eye. Then the next Major card is the Death card so you can say by November the situation will be resolved.

CARD	MONTH
THE EMPEROR	ARIES MARCH/APRIL
THE HIEROPHANT	TAURUS APRIL/ MAY
THE LOVERS	GEMINI
THE CHARIOT	CANCER
STRENGTH	LEO
THE HERMIT	VIRGO
JUSTICE	LIBRA
DEATH	SCORPIO
TEMPERANCE	SAGITTARIUS
THE DEVIL	CAPRICORN
THE STAR	AQUARIUS

THE MOON	PISCES
----------	--------

Or you can use Aces as they represent the seasons.

CARD	SEASON
ACE OF WANDS	SPRING
ACE OF CUPS	SUMMER
ACE OF SWORDS	AUTUMN
ACE OF PENTACLES	WINTER

Also the Knights show movement; so an example if your client asks a question: Will my boyfriend & I buy a house together and the Knight of Pentacles appears in the spread, so basically it indicates that this isn't going to happen as this card signifies no movement. So you need to advise your client I can't see this happening in the next year.

CARD	MOVEMENT INDICATED
KNIGHT OF WANDS	Imminent within a month the event will happen.
KNIGHT OF CUPS	Delays in the event happening.
KNIGHT OF SWORDS	Will happen very soon.
KNIGHT OF PENTACLES	Forget it. It isn't going to happen.

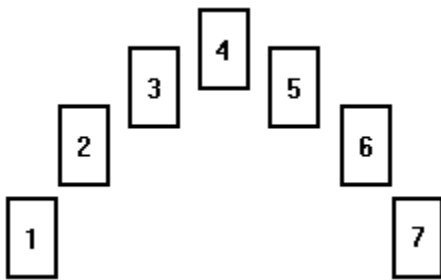

TAROT SPREADS

In reality, you can use any spread and change the positions and rename them accordingly for what you are looking for. This is what I have done to The Horse Shoe Spread. You can also devise your own spread. Often this is ideal because it means something to you as an individual. I always like to start with The Celtic Cross as it is a good opening spread and then move on to what the querent wants to inquire about. Sometimes, there isn't an answer, so you will need to revisit and rearrange the question. Often people will roll 3 questions into a sentence so as a reader you need to work with your client to answer the questions appropriately and also sensitively. I remember years ago a friend said to me tell me the truth which I did then she didn't like it. So you need to err on caution as people are sensitive and can take what you say literally.

1. HORSE SHOE SPREAD

This is related to relationships.

- Card 1 how you perceive the relationship
- Card 2 an unknown factor
- Card 3 future trends
- Card 4 The Out come
- Card 5 A known factor
- Card 6 an obstacle
- Card 7 how the other person perceives the relationship

HOW YOU INTERPRET THIS SPREAD

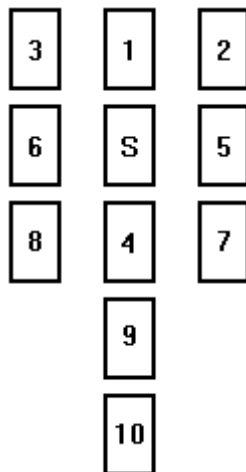

Lay the cards out in the above horse shoe spread, face down

1. turn over card 1
2. turn over card 7
3. turn over card 2
4. turn over card 6
5. turn over card 3
6. turn over card 5
7. turn over card 4

It may appear that a card appears to be unclear example in the obstacle position you turn over the 2 of Swords and you feel you need more information just add another card to clarify the situation you can do this with any of the cards.

2. TREE OF LIFE SPREAD

Is a very useful spread and gives a good overview of events in a persons future love life

3. CHOOSING A SIGNIFICATOR.

This card represents the querent and should be chosen from the court card depending on the person's birth sign below you'll find a list. The S card is where you place the appropriate court card

INTERPRETATION AND ADVICE GIVEN TO CLIENT

The first thing, I've noted was that the cards are quite evenly balanced in relationship to suits and also one major card, so I know this is a logical person not an emotional person. Who will accept sometimes you meet someone and it has potential or no potential into developing into a relationship.

The Emperor: signifies to me that John had given off the impression he's a decent bloke, but I feel he needs to be patient not to rush into things as the fire energy of this card can make a person impatient and associated with the astrological sign of Aries.

The Eight of Wands: always signifies swift action so the only way John will find out is by ringing Jenny and asking her out.

The Page of Wands: Jenny is interested in John; she is a lively young lady who also like him is impatient.

Six of Cups: that if he asked Jenny out she would accept and meeting up.

The Six of Swords: this feels like to me John actually needs to contact Jenny otherwise the relationship will just slip away. If this is really what he wants?

The Hierophant: this could develop into a relationship if John moves into the position of contacting Jenny.

The Five of Pentacles: comes out as the outcome this feels like I need to put another card on top to clarify the outcome.

King of Swords: Fives in tarot always show difficulties usually five of pentacles represent financial problems, so the king of swords gives me further information which I then can link back to the six of swords. The problem is that John fears rejection hence he is hesitating in contacting Jenny.

The other cards give the indication of a favorable outcome and he needs to take the risk of phoning her and asking her out, the feeling I get from the cards she is interested in him so she would say yes. So I need to reassure my client to take a risk, otherwise the opportunity will slip through his fingers.

WORD OF ADVICE

A reading is generally a maximum of one year, that everyone has free will and a reading is for guidance only.

In my experience, you will get someone who will literally take a reading as gospel!! They will ring you up and want readings weekly. I am ethical I make it clear I will not do another reading for around 3 - 6 months as you have to let things unfold and happen.

You can just print off these work sheets. I suggest you use a new sheet of paper for each reading so that you can put as much detail as possible on.
